CONSIGNING AND GETTING PAID

*Clothing and small items: you receive 40% of the selling price.

*Gear, large toys, cloth diapers: you receive 50% of the selling price.

*Pretty Penny brands (see list on guidelines): you receive 50% of the selling price.

If you chose to use your earnings as shop credit you receive an extra 10%

Sales prices are set by Bluebird Exchange and are based on condition, current trends and customer demand. We do our very best to maintain a balance between great selling prices for our consignors (you) and appealing buying prices for our customers (often, also you!) If you have a price in mind for a higher end piece of gear or clothing item please let us know.

*Payment in check form may be collected by coming into the shop during regular business hours and will be made available after there is a balance of at least $20 on your account. Shop credit is available IMMEDIATELY after an item sells. You may mix and match shop credit and/or request a check however you wish.

CONSIGNMENT TERMS

We continuously discount consigned items in order to keep inventory flowing and fresh for our customers. Clothing and small items will be reduced by 25% after the first 30-45 days and then by an additional 25% each 30 days thereafter, up to 75% off. Gear, large toys, cloth diapers + pretty penny brands stay on consignment for 6 MONTHS and do not follow a discount schedule. After 90 days, clothing + small items are considered "in grace". After 180 days, gear, large toys, cloth diapers and pretty penny brands are considered "in grace".

When the grace period ends you have TEN DAYS to come into the shop to locate and retrieve unsold items. You are responsible for tracking + collecting any items you do not want donated; we will not contact you. Items convert when the grace period ends, becoming property of Bluebird Exchange, and may be sold or donated at our discretion. All donations go to local charities serving at-risk, low-income families.

Bluebird Exchange reserves the right to, at any point during the consignment period, mark down any item due to previously unseen defects or shop wear. Other markdowns based on condition, change of season, or customer demand may be made at any time at Bluebird Exchange's discretion, including items being placed in the "$1 bin".
